

Warm up	Has anyone been able to go to the National Gallery? If anyone has writing they did last week and want to share, they can do so. Has anyone thought of what we could do for the book cover?
The sea	https://www.nationalgallery.org.uk/artists/joseph-mallord-william-turner When we talk about the sea, what images and ideas do you get? William Turner was a painter whose work about ships became very famous. Have you seen any of his paintings? When you look at them, what can you think of? Any smells, sounds or images that come to mind? Take a postcard with one of Turner's paintings, and imagine what is going on aboard the ship, under the sea, or on the shore. Take a minute to write about pirates. What do you know about them? What adjectives come to mind? Write down as many ideas as you can. Do you know what messages in bottles are? Take one of the stickers (stories in a jar), and write a story or a description based on your ideas and everything we have discussed today, and use the bottle as inspiration. These are stickers that show bottles filled with different items or landscapes.
